Legal Duties

As a school we welcome our duties under the Equality Act 2010. In addition this policy refers to guidance from the DFE dated May 2014; The Equality Act 2010 and schools. The general duties are to:

- Eliminate discrimination
- Advance equality of opportunity
- Foster good relations

The Act makes it unlawful for a school to discriminate against, harass or victimise a pupil or potential pupil:

- In relation to admissions
- In the way it provides education for pupils
- In the way it provides pupils access to any benefit, facility or service
- By excluding a pupil or subjecting them to any other detriment

We understand the principal of the act and the work needed to ensure that those with protected characteristics are not discriminated against and are given equality of opportunity.

It is unlawful for a school to discriminate against a pupil or prospective pupil by treating them less favourably because of their:

- Sex
- Disability
- Race
- Religion or belief
- Sexual orientation
- Gender reassignment
- Maternity and pregnancy

It is also unlawful to discriminate because of their association a pupil may have.

In order to meet our general duties, listed above, the law requires us to do some specific duties to demonstrate how we meet the general duties. These are to:

- Publish equality Information – to demonstrate compliance with the general duty across its functions. We will not publish any information that can specifically identify any child.
- Prepare and publish equality objectives. (detailed in this policy)

To do this we will collect data related to the protected characteristics above and analyse this data to determine our focus for our equality objectives. The data will be assessed across our core provisions as a school. This will include the following functions:

- Admissions
- Attendance
- Attainment and tracking of progress
- Exclusions
- Prejudice related incidents

Duties around accessibility for disabled pupils

Despite not having any physically disabled pupils currently, we do acknowledge in any refurbishments to make reasonable adjustments to the school environment. For example alterations to the school with a ramp to the main entrance and installation of a larger more accessible disabled toilet. Any changes to the environment in this respect will be included in our SI premises plan and also recognised where relevant in our H & S audits.

Prevent Duty

We also welcome our duty under the Education and Inspections Act 2006 to promote community cohesion and the latest duty on schools to as part of the Counter Terrorism and Security Act 2015. Donisthorpe has due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn in to terrorism. This principle is threaded through other policies (e.g. Anti-bullying, Behaviour for Learning, Teaching and Learning, Acceptable Use policy, PSHCE etc...) We fully advocate the principles of British Values through our curriculum and in our expectations of our whole school community for respect. As a school we will respectfully challenge extremist views and note concerns arising in our race/hate records.

We recognise that these duties reflect international human rights standards as expressed in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, the UN Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities, and the Human Rights Act 1998.

In fulfilling our legal obligations we will:

- Recognise and respect diversity
- Foster positive attitudes and relationships, and a shared sense of belonging
- Observe good equalities practice, including staff recruitment, retention and development.
- Aim to reduce and remove existing inequalities and barriers.
- Consult and involve widely
- Strive to ensure that society will benefit
